JOHN ALLOCICO Second Vice Chair, County Commissioner District 3

Born in Port Jefferson, N.Y., John Allococo moved to Florida in 1993 and came to Hernando County in 1999. Commissioner Allococo earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports sciences from the University of Florida, and his master's degree in physical therapy and postgraduate certification from the University of St. Augustine. John and his wife, Randi, co-founded a physical therapy company in Spring Hill, FL in 2006, expanding to add a Hudson, FL clinic with a total of 15 employees by the end of 2021, when they sold the business. John maintains an active license as a physical therapist and as a real estate agent. He and his wife, Randi, have three married adult children, one daughter in college, and have been blessed with eight grandchildren.

Commissioner Allococo has served on the Board of County Commissioners since November 2016, most recently being re-elected in 2024. He has previously served as Chairman of the Board multiple times.

He has been active in several professional organizations, the Greater Hernando County Chamber of Commerce and was previously the State Committeeman of the Hernando County Republican Party. Early in his professional career, he volunteered as an athletic trainer for Springstead and Hernando High schools. John and his family are also active members at their local church.

Commissioner Allococo's top priorities include smart economic growth, creating an environment that is favorable to attract new businesses and expand current businesses all while being fiscally responsible. Providing a properly educated and trained workforce for Hernando County and our region is also a passion for Commissioner Allococo, and he also serves on the District Board of Trustees for Pasco-Hernando State College.
